RESTIONS TO

et. Victoria, B. C.

The election of this gentleman as the representative of the District of Provencher Province of Manitoba, in the Parliament of the Dominion, and the announcement that he was on his way to Ottawa to claim his seat has given rise to no small degree of excite ment, not only at the Dominion capital, but throughout the whole Province of Ontario. Various rumors have been affoat with regard to the movements of the redoubtable ex President-one, that he had left Manitoba in company with Dr. Shultz and Mr. Cunningham, and that these gentlemen had undertaken the very delicate and unenviable task of presenting him to Mr. Speaker to be sworn in as Sir Geo. E. Cartier's successor to represent the metis of Provencher in the Parliament of Canada ; another, that he has travelled incog. through Ontario, and was concealed somewhere in the township of Hull, not far from Ottawa, awaiting the action of the Dominion Government on the subject of others, for the part they took in the Manitoba rebellion, and the execution of the unforunate man, Scott ; and a still later report says he had found his way to Montreal, and bec representatives to Ottawa, who had unuse their influence to secure him in the seat to which he has been elected. Should Reil make his appearance in Ottawa at this particular and critical juncture, it will certainly place the Government in a very awkward predicament. What to do with him, will tax the ingenuity of Sir John to the utmost. If be is allowed quietly to take his seat, it will raise a howl of indignation from at least two hundred thousand Orange throats, who constitute the back-bone of Sir John's strength in Ontario, and to incur whose displeasure would be fatal to the very existence of the no10 Conservative party. On the other hand, should be be instrumental in having Reil ar- PLUMMER & PAGDEN rested, he would be almost certain to alienate a large number of his French supporters, who sympathise with Reil, and would resent any attempt to do him an injury. Therefore, between the two parties Sir John will occupy anything but an enviable position. That portion of the press which supports the pres- COMMISSION ACENT ent Government, are taking the ground that the local Government of Ontario should asprosecution, while that devoted to the intersets of the Opposition argue that the responsets of the Opposition argue that the responsets of the Opposition argue that the responsibility devolves upon Sir John, as Minister of Justice, and they call upon him to discharge the duty he owes to the public in the premises. The fact is, neither side feel disposed to act in this matter, and if Reil shows a bold front and demands his seat while party feeling runs high at the capital, and the fate of the Government is in the balance, the probability is be will be allowed to take his seat, and his past transgressions be covered up by the issuing of a proclamation of amnesty to him and all others in any way implicated in the Manitoba rebellion and death of Scott. The following extract in relation to this mat-ter, is from the Ottawa Citizen of the 24th ultimo: "There is and on the 24th ultimo: "There is undoubtedly much excitement here as well as in other parts of Ontario, on account of the report that the murderer of Scott actually intends to claim his seat for Provencher. We are quite sure that most persons are deeply indignant that this man Reil should have the hardineod to present himself so boldly in a community, where the laws are respected, and offenders rally receive their deserts. French. Canadians, we are quite sure, ought to feel exceedingly humiliated that this person should be elected in the constituency which, until a few months ago, had the honor of having the ablest statesman of French origin for its representative in Par-liament. Some persons have talked of using violence the moment they have Riel in their power; but we do not believe there is any serious intention of violating the law. the people of Ontario demand is, that the machinery of justice should be put into operation without delay. It is clearly the duty action in a matter of such serious import. As the chief law officer of the Province he is bound to order the apprehension of all those who have made themselves amenable to the law. The universal sentiment of Ontario demands that Riel be arrested. Justice to the accused also demands that he should have a fair and speedy trial. If crime cannot be brought home to him, then it is just that he should walk forth a free man. No one can deny that it will be a blot upon the fair reputation of the House of Commons, if he is allowed to take his seat. If this should happen, then the responsibility would rest on the authorities of Ontario. His immediate ar-rest, when he enters their jurisdiction, would prevent the scandal that would arise when he was permitted to take his seat in the House. If he is not at once arrested, there is nothing to prevent him taking the oath and his place, like any other member duly elected to sit in Parliament. Of course, should be claim his right before the officers of justice COAL & WOOD MERCHANTS arrest him, we will have a scene without parallel in the history of this country. The indignation of many persons will certainly become irrepressible. But even if he does take his seat, he can be arrested at once; for a criminal process can always be served on a the duty of some member to move immediately for his expulsion. Riel's case is clearly one demanding the exercise of the sternest right possessed by the Commons. Very rarely has the right been enforced in British history; but still there are several cases on record, as the student of constitutional history will probably recall to mind. The most remarkable illustration of the duty of Parliament fu such a case as Riel's, is that of the forger, James Sadlier. This man was reported to the House as being a fugitive from nstice, and thereupon it unanimously voted his expalsion. Riel is accused of the gravest of crimes—rebellion and murder, and he is a fugitive from justice. No amnesty has ever been proclaimed for his crime by the Crown; onsequently he is a felon in the eyes of the law, and as such must be expelled by Parliement. Whilst Lepipe is in prison for trial, it would be an extraordinary perversion of justice to let his accomplice go free. But we do not wish to see the difficulties of the

about for any time with impunity, a danger-one excitement will be probably fomented, that will arise may lead to very unpleasant and acts of violence committed. We wish to ceat in Parltament, the excitemen situation complicated by allowing Riel to take his seat. The proper procedure is un-doubtedly his arrest the moment he steps within the jurisdiction of Ontario. When he is in the hands of the law, then he will re-ceive every consideration to which he is justly entitled. But if he is allowed to move

The Entertainment for the Benefit

For many years past there has been no more successful entertainment than that so generously tendered by Chas. Vivian and members of his company on Saturday night last for the benefit of the Royal Hospital, at To THE VICTORIA DAILT STANDARD :the Philharmonic Hall. Spacious as is this hall, every available seat was secured by reservation before the doors were opened, and when the entertainment was at its height the tion, was sent for to form a Ministry.

The programme provided for the evening was one which could not fail to give satisfaction, embracing charming morceaux, both instrumental and vocal, from the most admired composers, and giving scope to the wonderful and versatile talent possessed by Mr. Vivian. From first to last the entertainment was a success, not only in point of attendance but in regard to the excellent manner is which the programme was enacted, and we can only reiterate the words of his Worship Mayor Dalby by saying that the generous impulse displayed towards the Hospital on Saturday would be held in long reputation. Saturday would be held in long remainder the same of nembrance, more especially since the institution became through the instrumentality of the Vivian Company, the recipient of the handsome donation of upwards of $500. . We trust that Mr. Vivian's bealth, which is somewhat declining just at present, will so improve as to allow him to present himself before many another "bumper" house in this

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

OLD SORES AND OLD SKIN DISEASES. The seeds of these disorders are effecnally expelled by this penetrating Ungaent, not only from the superficial parts, but from the internal tissues likewise. Any case, even if of 20 years standing, speed ly yields to its influence.

Rheumatism, and erysipelas may be overcome by frequently fomenting the affected parts in warm water, drying, and immediately applying this southing Oint ment. The same procedure applies equants ally well for caring sore throat, diptherria bronchitis, asthma, tightness of the chest, and pain in the side, which instant treate ment alone prevents degenerating the more serious maladies. The Ointment has the same derivative powers over chest complaints as a blister possesses, without causing pain or debility.

Thousands suffer severely for years from these annoying complaints through false delicacy. Let such purchase a pot of Holloway's Ointment, read the directions which accompany it, act upon them to the letter, and they will, without difficulty, succeed in obliterating every vestige of these barrassing ailments.
